Zangrando, Irma A. (Van Vechten)

Devoted mother, grandmother, & Montessori teacher on Oct. 12, 2000. She is survived by her son, David (Wendy) Zangrando of Cincinnati, OH; daughter, Lisa (Devon) Van Vechten of Henrietta; grandchildren, Yvonne & Diana Van Vechten, & Keir & Emma Zangrando; her mother, Milliecent Comeau of Latham, NY; sisters, Milliecent (Thomas) Malone, Edna (Howard) Moore, & Trudy (Joseph) Pelcher all of Troy, NY, & Joan Long of Cohoes, NY; brother, Paul Comeau of Albany; former husband, Robert Zangrando of OH; nieces, nephews & cousins.

Irma was our area's most respected Montessori teacher. She devoted over 30 years to the Montessori environment. Seventeen of those years were with the Greece Montessori School. She truly believed 200% in the Montessori method. She was an inspiration to many parents and an advocate for the children. When she spoke of the children and what they were working on, it was with joy and appreciation. She was always excited about teaching and continually challenged the children to do more and be more. With her knowledge and enthusiasm, Irma was also instrumental in expanding the school to double its size. She touched many minds and hearts. We will miss her dearly. With love, from the parents and staff of the Greece Montessori School.
