Joseph Anthony Cordello

February 5, 1991 – November 24, 2024

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Joseph Anthony Cordello on November 24, 2024, at the age of 33. He was predeceased by his father, Michael Cordello Sr., and his grandparents, Anthony and Rosalie Cordello, and Albert and Ann Almansberger.

Joseph is survived by his loving mother, Anna Ferens (Mike); his devoted brother, Michael Cordello Jr. (Sara); his aunts, Noreen Barrese (Craig) and Grace Malatesta (Jim); his uncles, Anthony Cordello Jr. (Lori), Albert Almansberger (Andrea), and Kurt Almansberger (Joan); and his cousins: Maria Cordello, Michelle Cordello, David Cordello, Christine Cordello, Alaina Rotolo (Ricky), Louis Malatesta, Nina Malatesta (George), Dana Anticoli (Matthew), Thomas Barrese, Jill Edwards (Brendan), Lara Discenza (Mike), John Almansberger (Sara), Andrew Almansberger (Katy), and Amanda Almansberger. We would also like to recognize some of his closest friends, including Rob, Donny, Randy, Jason, Jesse, Courtney, and Kyle, among many others.

Joe was a devoted son, brother, and friend. He loved playing fantasy football and often bragged about his league championship victories. Growing up, he played baseball under his father's coaching, excelling as a formidable pitcher and power hitter. He attended many sporting events and was an avid fan of the Miami Dolphins. Joey had a passion for live music; festivals and concerts were among his favorite activities. There wasn't a place in the country he wouldn't travel to for a show he was interested in. He was also a foodie, a sushi snob, and enjoyed giving out pizza ratings ("one bite, everybody knows the rules"). He and his brother would often challenge each other to see who could finish their plate faster. He was a terrific salesman; some even considered him a cold-calling legend. His father often said he had the "gift of gab."

Friends and family may call on Thursday, December 5, 2024, from 4-7 PM at Miller Funeral and Cremation Services, Inc. (3325 Winton Rd. S., Rochester, NY 14623).

Joseph will be missed by many. The family asks for the courtesy of no flowers. Please consider donations to Villa of Hope, 3300 Dewey Ave., Rochester, NY 14616 with a designation towards Behavioral Health. Villa of Hope Donation Page
