

F165/7

Nicholas Mryglod

Age 90, passed away on Saturday, Aug. 28, 2010, at the House of John in Clifton Springs. Nicholas was born Sept. 30, 1919, in Sylvan, Manitoba, Canada, the son of the late Michael & Katherine Mryglod. He came to the U.S. in 1957 to work on the Niagara Power Project in Niagara Falls. Nicholas enjoyed gardening, farming, camping, carpentry and fishing. He also worked in Highway Construction, and as a long distance truck driver, lumberjack and factory worker.

Nicholas is survived by his loving wife, Lorraine of Farmington; children, Douglas, Donna, Kevin, David and Mathew (Kim); grandchildren, Holly, Paul, Rachel, Rebecca, Jeremiah, Nicholas, Danielle, Nicole, William, Helene, Katie and Emma; great-grandchildren, Megan, Madison, Mikala and Nicholas; brothers, William and Dymetro; sisters, Pauline, Mary, Julia and Millie. He is predeceased by his parents, and by siblings: Anthony, Tekla, Anne, and 2 infant sisters.

Services will be at the convenience of the family. Friends may contribute to the House of John, 14 Spring St., Clifton Springs, in Nicholas' memory. Arrangements have been entrusted to Patrick Funeral Home, Clifton Springs, NY.

Published in Rochester Democrat And Chronicle on August 30, 2010
