Obituary for Panagiotis "Peter" Konstantinidis

Panagiotis "Peter" Konstantinidis was a loving husband, father, brother, and friend. Panagiotis passed away peacefully on March 10th, 2024 at age 64. His battle with cancer showed his courage in facing life's challenges with a smile. Despite the hardship, Peter stayed strong until the end.

Panagiotis is pre-deceased by his parents, Georgios and Theopisty Konstantinidis. He is survived by his wife, Athina Konstantinidis; his daughter, Theopistie Konstantinidis (Matthew Casale); his brother Haralambos Konstantinidis (Helene Vu); his sisters Paressa Konstantinidis (Nicko Lipitkas) and Eleni Konstantinidis (Christos Metaxas) and many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Panagiotis grew up in Amoxori, Florina, a small village in Greece of which he was incredibly proud of. He spent his days supporting his mother and siblings as the oldest boy in the house. Panagiotis arrived in Rochester, NY with his father in 1976 and slowly began bringing over his immediate family. Panagiotis, along with his father and his brother, opened South Town Family Restaurant in 1988 together. He met his wife, Athina, during visits back to the village and the family moved to settle in Henrietta, NY. Panagiotis and his brother, Haralambos, went on to open and co-own Bob's Diner together in 1997. Panagiotis could be found there every day, even after his diagnosis, doing what he could to help his brother.

Panagiotis loved to serve others. He consistently prioritized the well being of his family, his friends, and of course his customers. Panagiotis would often be seen making jokes, bringing a smile and a sense of comfort to all those around him. The people close to Panagiotis will remember him by all of his sayings such as “better days are coming” and “keep on smiling.” Panagiotis’ positive attitude was infectious and his joy will live on forever in our memories of him.

Family and friends are welcome Wednesday, March 13th from 10am-12pm at the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church 962 East Ave. where a Funeral Service will be at 12pm. Interment will follow at Maplewood Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the church in Peter's memory.
