

Robert D. Koenig

July 24, 1929 - February 28, 2025

KOENIG, Robert D.

of Eden, NY, passed away February 28, 2025. Loving father of Rick Cole, Gretchen (Paul) Hickey, Kurt (Lori) Koenig, Hans (Patricia) Koenig; "Grampa Bob" of Zachary Koenig, Claudia Koenig, Sophia Koenig, Quinn Hickey and Jackson Hickey; Dear brother of Rosemary (late David) Murphy and the late Charles and Douglas Koenig; loving longtime companion of Carol Wozniak; a memorial will be celebrated at a date and time to be announced; Robert was a graduate of St. Thomas Aquinas High School in Rochester, NY, where he was a golden gloves boxer and played football on their nationally ranked team. After high school, Robert served in the United States Air Force. He was captain of the football team and was stationed in Alaska during the Korean War. Following his time in the military, he became a New York State Trooper and was promoted to the Bureau of Criminal Investigation. Later in life, Robert was in sales, first as a factory rep selling ski equipment throughout New England and later selling recreational vehicles in WNY and North East, PA. Robert was a gifted skier and was an instructor at Kissing Bridge for many years. He was a skilled equestrian with a passion for racing steeplechase, showing, breaking and raising horses. Having been raised working on his uncle's farm, Robert always had an oversized vegetable garden wherever he lived, which he took great pride in. Other hobbies of his included hunting, fly fishing, trap shooting and playing in his banjo band. Arrangements by JOHN J. KACZOR FUNERAL HOME, INC. Share condolences at www.kaczorfunerals.com.

My condolences to your whole family. Bob was such a nice guy with an unforgettable personality. I have fond memories of his garden and visits with my husband and I during his time at the farmhouse. My daughter was always delighted to see him and True!
